Introduction and Invitation

Department of Chemistry, University of Delhi is celebrating 75th Year of establishment in Vice-Regal Lodge Kitchen, though the Department was established in 1924 along with the Department of Physics. On this occasion, Department is organizing International Conference on “Emerging Trends in Drugs Development and Natural-Products” from January 12th -14th, 2018. During this conference, Department will also celebrate various memorial lectures to honor their significant contributions in the field of Chemical Sciences.

The organizing committee cordially invites the scientific community to attend this conference. The main objective of this conference is to impart scientific quest among young minds to prepare them to meet the challenges of 21st century. Moreover, this conference will also provide opportunities to young researchers to interact with the best brains present their views on the subjects of their expertise. It aims to attract and motivate talented students towards research in chemical science.

Theme of Conference

1. Recent Development in Drug Discovery
2. Natural Products: Isolation and Synthesis
3. Advances in Organic Chemistry
4. Nucleic Acids, Peptide and Protein Chemistry

Speakers

Key Note Address: Prof. Goverdhan Mehta, FRS, National Research Professor

1. Prof. K. N. Ganesh, IISER Tirupati
2. Prof. V. K. Singh, IISER, Bhopal
3. Prof. Ganesh Pandey, CBMR, Lucknow;
